IS TEACHING IN A CATHOLIC SCHOOL FOR YOU?

Take the Test

1. ____ Teaching students the skills they need to succeed in today's workplace is important to me, but so is going beyond this to rally enkindle in them a life long love of learning.
2. ____ Helping students learn the tools necessary to lead successful, rewarding lives as contributing members of society is a big part of my educational philosophy.
3. ____ Assisting parents in providing leadership to youth in developing the critical ability to distinguish the good, the beautiful, and the true from their opposites is important to me.
4. ____ I think education is incomplete if it does not address the most fundamental yearning of the human heart: to love and serve God.
5. ____ Celebrating Christian values in word and Sacrament, teaching children about loving God and neighbor, and building a school spirit characterized by faith, hope, freedom and love are important to me.

If you answered "True" to all the above, you may just find your true vocation is to teach in a Catholic school!!
